

Indian wedding dress guide

THANK YOU FOR CELEBRATING WITH US

Indian weddings are vibrant, joyous celebrations filled with rich traditions and elaborate attire. As a guest, understanding the dress code can feel daunting. This guide will help you choose an outfit that is both respectful and stylish.

Outfit Ideas for Women

- Saree: A traditional Indian garment consisting of a long unstitched cloth draped over the body. It is very elegant and versatile.
- Lehenga Choli: A popular option, consisting of a long skirt(lehenga), blouse(choli), and dupatta (scarf).
- Salwar Kameez: A comfortable and versatile outfit consisting of loose trousers (salwar) and a tunic (kameez), often paired with a dupatta. Salwar kameez are a great option.
- Anarkali Suit: A flowing, elegant suit that is both traditional and modern.

When selecting your outfit, consider the following:

- Fabric: Silk, georgette, chiffon, and cotton are popular choices.
- Color: Avoid wearing red, as it is traditionally reserved for the bride. Other acceptable colors include blues, greens, pinks, yellows, and oranges. Avoid black and white.
- Embellishments: Embroidery, sequins, and beadwork can add a touch of glamour.
- Accessories: Complete your look with jewelry, bangles, a clutch, and comfortable heels. A bindi can be a nice touch, if you're comfortable wearing one.

Outfit Ideas for Men

- Sherwani: A long, coat-like garment, often worn with churidar pants.
- Kurta Pajama: A comfortable and stylish option, suitable for daytime events.
- Nehru Suit: A classic suit with a mandarin collar.
- Bandhgala Suit: A formal, close-fitting suit.
- Western Suit: A classic western suit can also work, particularly for receptions.

When selecting your outfit, consider the following:

- Fabric: Silk, brocade, and cotton are popular choices.
- Color: Jewel tones and pastels are great options. Avoid wearing black or white to the main wedding ceremony.
- Embellishments: Embroidery and subtle patterns can add a touch of sophistication.
- Accessories: Complete your look with a shawl or stole, a turban or head covering (optional), and traditional Indian shoes (juttis or mojaris).

Final thoughts

- Reserve red and beige for bride and groom.
- Avoid overly revealing clothing, especially during religious ceremonies.
- Have Fun! The most important thing is to celebrate with us and enjoy the festivities!
- Comfort is Key: Indian weddings often involve long hours of celebrations, including dancing. Choose an outfit that allows you to move comfortably.
